Madrid, April 24. N. S.

THE King of Spain continues in good Health, and went publickly to Chapel on the Easter Holidays in the usual manner; Their Catholick Majesties design to go and pass a few days at the Buen Retiro, having put off their intended Journey to Aranjuez upon the Advice of the Physicians, who do not like the Air of that Place. The Duke de Sesto, Son to the Marquis de los Balbases, is appointed to be Ambassador from this Crown to the Pope. Count Berlipi, whom the King has chosen to go as his Envoy Extraordinary to the Court at Vienna, to Compliment the King and Queen of the Romans on their Marriage, intends to begin his Journey thither to morrow; He is afterwards to go to Brussels, to make the Compliment of Condoleance to the Elector of Bavaria on the Death of the Electoral Prince. The Marquis de Malpica, Gentleman of the King's Bedchamber, died here yesterday, and is succeeded by the Marquis of Mirabel, his Brother. The Places of Superintendent of the King's Revenues, and President of the Council of the West-Indies, are not yet disposed of. The Flota designed for New-Spain will depart from Cadiz about the beginning of June next, and is to consist in 14 Sail of Ships, the Command of which is given to Don Manuel de Velasco. Our last Accounts from Ceuta say, the Moors continue before that place, but proceed so faintly in their Attacks, that we may believe they are grown very weary of the Siege; They have not of late fired so many Bombs into the Town as they used to do, and the Besieged have discovered, that most of the Mortars they made use of are burst; In the mean time, the Spaniards are finishing their new Works without the Town.

Rome, April 25. This Court is very well pleased with the Account they have received from France, That the Arch-Bishop of Cambray has so readily submitted to the Pope's Bull for condemning his Book. The Pope has made Cardinal Morigia Arch-Priest of Sancta Maria Majore, and has given a very rich Abbey in the Ecclesiastical State to Cardinal Nogroni, in lieu of the Bishoprick of Faenza, which he resigned some time ago. The Imperial Ambassador has received an Express from Vienna, to acquaint him that the Emperor has made him Captain of his Guard of Archers, and 'tis said, he has Orders to return home so soon as the Pope will admit him to his Audience of Leave; Neither his Excellency, nor any of the other Ambassadors at this Court, have yet visited the Queen of Poland, by reason she refuses to receive and treat them in all respects like the Cardinals, which, she alledges, is without Precedent; and they are expecting Directions from their several Masters concerning this Matter.

Venice, May 1. Signior Sfondra, Fiscal of the Province of Dalmatia, is gone from hence with a Droggerman for the Levant to assist Signior Grimani, the Commissioner appointed by this Republick for settling the Limits between the Venetian and Turkish Territories, who, according to our last Advices from Dalmatia, was arrived at Zara, and intended forthwith to repair to the Frontiers, where the Turkish Commissioners are to meet him. Signior Girolamo Venier made his Entry into this City on Monday last as Procurator of St. Mark; and Signior Bragadino, who is preferred to the same Dignity, will make his Entry on Monday next. We have an Account from Constantinople, that the Grand Visier was come thither, and had caused the Peace to be Proclaimed, to the great Satisfaction of all the Inhabitants of that City; And the Sultan himself was shortly expected there from Adrianople.

Vienna, May 2. The Difference with the French Envoy, the Marquis de Villars, is at last made up, the Prince of Lichtenstein having met the Envoy, and made his Excuses to him for what passed at the Ball in the Arch-Duke's Apartment: And it's said, that the Count of Sinzendorf, whom the Emperor has appointed to be his Envoy at the French Court, has received Orders to prepare for his Journey thither. Count Oting has given Directions for hastening the Preparations that are making in order to his Embassy to the Grand Signior, intending to begin his Journey about the beginning of the next Month; And we hear, the Sultan has named the Bassa of Belgrade to come with the Character of his Ambassador Extraordinary to this Court. The Emperor intends to go on the 8th Instant to Luxemburgh, and 'tis said, that after some stay there, the Court will remove to Presburgh, where the States of the Kingdom of Hungary are to meet the next Month. Cardinal Collonitz is returned from thence, as is the Bishop of Raab from Raab. The Count of Brandois, Counseller of State and High-Steward to the Arch-Dutchess Elizabeth, died here last Sunday. They write from Hungary, that the Conferences for settling the Limits between the Emperor and the Grand Signior's Dominions were begun at Salankemen on the 17th past, and continued with good Success. The Auxiliary Troops that have served in Hungary are preparing to return home.

Cologne, May 12. The Canons of this Chapter, who were deprived on account of their adhering to the Cardinal of Furstemberg during the late War, are restored pursuant to the late Treaty of Ryswick, which provides, That they shall enjoy their former Rights and Dignities jointly with the Persons who were chosen into their Places, but on condition nevertheless, That the Revenues of the said Prebendaries shall solely belong to those that are at pre-
